

ADDENDUM TO THE CLII STANDARD COLLABORATIVE PROCESS PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Article 2.2 is amended to include the following:

- d. In the event that the Team chooses to meet via an online video conference platform:
 - 1. Only the people who have signed the Participation Agreement may participate in Collaborative meetings. No other people may be physically present in room of a participant during the online video meeting.
 - 2. We all agree that no one will audio or video record any meeting.
 - 3. We all agree to there being no live or deferred video or audio relay of the online meeting to third parties (i.e., anyone who has not signed the Participation Agreement).
 - 4. If anyone creates a video or audio recording of the meeting, inadvertently or otherwise, that person agrees to destroy any such record as soon as they become aware of its existence.
 - 5. If a video and/or audio connection is lost, we will stop the meeting until the impacted people have returned to the meeting.
 - 6. If the video and/or audio connection is of poor quality, the meeting will be terminated and rescheduled in the future.
 - 7. If the there is any remote interruption, including videobombing, we will suspend the meeting and restart the online meeting once we are satisfied that the reason for the interruption has been resolved and that it is appropriate and possible to restart the meeting.

Article 6.1 is amended to provide:

- e. In the event that the Team chooses to meet via an online video conference platform:
 - 1. Video conference conversations and sharing of screens constitute Collaborative Process communications.
 - 2. Online video Collaborative joint meetings are a "without prejudice" process to seek a negotiated settlement.
 - 3. All other aspects of the Collaborative process as set out in the Participation Agreement and the Terms of Business of each practitioner applies to video.
